

Training Name: The Pulse Nightclub and life after

Dates: 01/22/2026 - 01/22/2026

Venue: Christian Fellowship Church (CFC)
Evansville, IN 47725

Price: $100

Instructors: Raul Rivas
Doug Monda

Course Description:
From 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM Central Time

Schedule

8:00 AM - 11:00 AM	Retired Agent Raul V. Rivas will debrief the Pulse nightclub incident, sharing insights on its impact and lessons learned.
12:30 PM - 2:30 PM	Retired Agent Doug Monda, suicide survivor, founder of Survive First, will tell his powerful story of his life and recovery. Doug will present “Surviving Suicide,” addressing the critical issue of mental health in law enforcement.
2:45 PM - 4:00 PM	“Basic Education on Trauma, CISM, and Stress Management,” offering practical tools to manage stress and trauma effectively.

Training Description:
The tragic attack on the Pulse nightclub on June 12, 2016, left 49 dead and 68 injured, marking it as one of the worst mass shootings in U.S. history. This training session will reflect on the incident and provide strategies for coping with its aftermath, alongside addressing critical mental health challenges faced by law enforcement.

Why Attend?

Police officers are 54% more likely to die by suicide than the average American—a staggering and sobering statistic. This training not only equips you with tools to enhance your professional resilience but also provides strategies that could transform your personal life.

Join us for this vital opportunity to learn from experienced professionals and take steps toward a healthier, more resilient future.

We look forward to seeing you there.